decades, the ECL's equity has been fully 'eroded and therefore in pursuance of the statutory provisions in the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985, ECL had no other option but to refer itself to the BIFR on 17.11.99.

The resolution passed by the Board of Directors of ECL in their meeting held on 24.10.98 for closure of highly loss-making 64 mines of the company has not yet been implemented. Several milder opinions for revival of ECL have been offered to the trade unions who have not accepted any one of them. The last of the revival packages including early retirement of 22,000 employees above 55 years of age under an arrangement similar to the Voluntary Retirement Scheme has also been turned down by the trade unions. No package for revival of ECL can be implemented without a reasonable extent of downsizing the manpower of the company.

The amount of coal destroyed in coal fires during the last three years in negligible.
